- i. Any delay or failure by TCSCS in processing any payment messages or other information or communication or any request from you, or in performing any of its duties or other obligations in connection with any transaction, caused in whole or in part by any Compliance Action; or

B. Risk Disclosure Statements

1. RISK OF SECURITIES TRADING

You acknowledge that the prices of Securities can and do fluctuate, sometimes dramatically, and that any individual security may experience upward or downward movements, and may under some circumstances even become valueless. You appreciate therefore that there is an inherent risk that losses will be incurred rather than profit made, as a result of buying and selling Securities. This is a risk that you will be prepared to accept.

2. RISK OF MARGIN TRADING

The risk of loss in financing a Transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. You may sustain losses in excess of your cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with the licensed or registered person. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin deposits or interest payments. If the required margin deposits or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, your collateral may be liquidated without your consent or prior notification to you. Moreover, you will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your Account(s) and/or account(s) opened in the name of TCSCL for and on your behalf and interest charged on your Account(s) and/or account(s) opened in the name of TCSCL for and on your behalf. You should therefore carefully consider whether such a financing arrangement is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

3. RISK OF TRADING NASDAQ-AMEX SECURITIES AT THE HKEx

The Securities under the Nasdaq-Amex Pilot Program (the "PP") are aimed at sophisticated investors. You should consult the licensed or registered person and become familiarized with the PP before trading in the PP Securities. You should be aware that the PP Securities are not regulated as a primary or secondary listing on the Main Board or the GEM of HKEx.

4. RISK OF TRADING IN NASDAQ AND NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE (NYSE)

- 4.1. The Securities under Nasdaq and NYSE are aimed for experienced investors.

4.2. You understand that investing in the United States involves additional risks related to currency fluctuations, economic and political differences and differences in accounting standards. You agree that, in order to trade in U.S. markets, you may either: (1) convert HK dollars held in your Account to the US dollars; or (2) transfer into your Account the applicable US dollars. Currency exchanges are effected on a principal basis, and may include a mark-up or mark-down, as appropriate. You understand that more favorable exchange rates may be available through third parties not affiliated with TCSCL. You further understand that foreign currency Transactions are not regulated or overseen by SFC. Securities Transactions executed on NASDAQ or NYSE may be effected by one or more partner(s) of TCSCL, which may be compensated for their services. You understand that orders to buy or sell U.S. Securities or American Depositary Receipts may not execute in as timely a manner as orders to buy or sell HK Securities.

4.3. You permit TCSCL to borrow from you any U.S. listed Securities in your portfolio and loan these Securities out in the Securities lending market. TCSCL and its Affiliates will have the discretion to initiate loans of your Securities. You will not be asked to approve each loan before it is initiated, but you can sell your shares at any time or terminate your participation in the program. TCSCL reserves the rights to pay you a loan fee for the shares that it borrows from you. You shall seek for TCSCL licensed representative opinions on the details of this arrangement and seek appropriate professional and legal advice if necessary.

5. RISK OF PROVIDING AN AUTHORITY TO HOLD MAIL OR TO DIRECT MAIL TO THIRD PARTIES

If you provide TCSCL with an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties, it is important for you to promptly collect in person and review contract notes and statements of your Account(s) and/or account(s) opened in the name of TCSCL for and on your behalf in detail to ensure that any anomalies or mistakes can be detected in a timely fashion.

6. RISKS OF CLIENT ASSETS RECEIVED OR HELD OUTSIDE HONG KONG

Your assets received or held by TCSCL outside Hong Kong are subject to the applicable laws and regulations of the relevant overseas jurisdiction which may be different from SFO and the rules made thereunder. Consequently, your assets may not enjoy the same protection as that conferred on client assets received or held in Hong Kong.

7. RISK OF TRADING GEM STOCKS

7.1. GEM stocks involve a high investment risk. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. GEM stocks may be very volatile and illiquid.

7.2. You should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

7.3. Current information on GEM stocks may only be found on the internet website operated by the HKEx. GEM companies are usually not required to issue paid announcements in newspapers.

7.4. You should seek independent professional advice if you are uncertain of or do not understand any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the nature and risks involved in trading of GEM stocks.

8. CURRENCY RISKS

The profit or loss in Transactions in foreign currency-denominated Securities (whether they are traded in your or another jurisdiction) will be affected by fluctuations in currency rates where there is a need to convert from the currency denomination of the contract to another currency.

9. TRADING FACILITIES

Electronic trading facilities are supported by computer-based component systems for the order-routing, execution, matching, registration or clearing of trades. As with all facilities and systems, they are vulnerable to temporary disruption or failure. Your ability to recover certain losses will be subject to limits on liability imposed by the system provider, the market, the clearing house and/or participant firms. Due to different limits on liability, you should make enquiry with the relevant parties in relation to your trading.

10. RISK OF ELECTRONIC TRADING

Access to the internet or other electronic medium may be limited or unavailable during periods of peak demand, market volatility, systems upgrades or maintenance or for other reasons. Any communication through the internet or other electronic medium may be subject to interruption, transmission blackout, and delayed transmission due to unpredictable traffic congestion and other reasons beyond the licensed or registered person's control. Internet is, due to technical limitation, an inherently unreliable medium of communication. As a result of such unreliability, there may be delays in the transmission and receipt of information. The statements may not be sent to the designated email address at all. Moreover, communications and personal data may be accessed by unauthorized third parties, and there are risks of misunderstanding or error in any communication and that such risks shall be absolutely borne by you.

11. DERIVATIVE TRADING

- 11.1. Derivatives products include but not limit to derivatives warrants, callable bull/bear contracts (“CBBCs”), and those exchange-traded funds that invest in derivatives instruments designed to replicate the performance of an index, a stock or a commodity. In light of the risks, you should undertake such Transactions only if you understand the nature of the product agreement (and contractual relationships) into which you are entering and the extent of your exposure to risk. Trading in derivatives products is not suitable for everyone. You should carefully consider whether trading is appropriate for you in light of your experience, objectives, financial resources and other relevant circumstances.
- 11.2. In the event that a derivatives product issuer becomes insolvent and defaults on their listed Securities, you will be considered as unsecured creditors and will have no preferential claims to any assets held by the issuer. You should therefore pay close attention to the financial strength and creditworthiness of derivatives product issuers.
- 11.3. Uncollateralized derivatives products are not asset backed. In the event of issuer bankruptcy, you can lose your entire investment. You should read the listing document to determine if a product is uncollateralized.
- 11.4. Derivatives products such as derivatives warrants and CBBCs are leveraged and can change in value rapidly according to the gearing ratios relative to the underlying assets. You should be aware that the value of a derivatives product may fall to zero resulting in a total loss of the initial investment.
- 11.5. Derivatives products have expiry dates after which their values may become worthless. You should be aware of the expiry time horizon and choose a product with an appropriate lifespan for your trading strategy.
- 11.6. The price of a derivatives product may not match its theoretical price due to external influences such as market supply and demand factors. As a result, actual traded prices can be higher or lower than the theoretical price.
- 11.7. Trading of derivatives products with underlying assets not denominated in Hong Kong dollars are also exposed to exchange rate risk. Currency rate fluctuations can adversely affect the underlying asset value, and, therefore, also affect the price of derivatives products.
- 11.8. The HKEx requires all derivatives product issuers to appoint a liquidity provider for each individual issue. The role of liquidity providers is to provide two way quotes to facilitate trading of their products. In the event that a liquidity provider defaults or ceases to fulfill its role, you may not be able to buy or sell the product until a new liquidity provider has been assigned.
- 11.9. All things being equal, the value of a derivatives warrant will decay over time as it approaches its expiry date. Derivatives warrants should therefore not be viewed as long term investments.
- 11.10. Prices of derivatives warrants can increase or decrease in line with the implied volatility of underlying asset price. You should be aware of the underlying asset volatility.
- 11.11. When trading CBBCs, you should be aware of their intraday “knockout” or mandatory call feature. A CBBC will cease trading when the underlying asset value equals the mandatory call price/level as stated in the listing document. You will only be entitled to the residual value, which may be nil, of the terminated CBBC as calculated by the product issuer in accordance with the listing document.
- 11.12. The issue price of a CBBC includes funding costs. Funding costs are gradually reduced over time as the CBBC moves towards expiry. The longer the duration of the CBBC, the higher the total funding costs. In the event that a CBBC is called, you will lose all the funding costs for the entire lifespan of the CBBC. The formula for calculating the funding costs are stated in the listing document.

12. RISK ASSOCIATED WITH ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION / FACSIMILE

- 12.1. TCSCS may, if it sees fit, also act on any instructions and/or requests given by you through email or facsimile machine (“fax”) where such email or fax by their face are expressly stated to have come from you and which are honestly believed by TCSCS to do so. However, any email must be sent out from the default email address provided in client information section or fax communication must bear a signature or signatures which, in the reasonable opinion of TCSCS, correspond to those of you or of its Authorized Representative. TCSCS shall be entitled at any time, at its absolute discretion, to refuse to carry out any instruction given or offer made by email or fax communication, even if the employee who received such communication on behalf of TCSCS may have stated its acceptance thereof.
- 12.2. TCSCS shall be entitled to rely on such email and fax instructions and shall not be responsible for any liabilities arising from errors in transmission and misunderstandings or reasonable errors by TCSCS regarding such email and fax instructions, including those related to the identity of you or your Authorized Representative.
- 12.3. You agree to hold TCSCS harmless and to keep TCSCS indemnified against any reasonable loss which it may suffer as a result of acting on email or fax communications which TCSCS reasonably believe in good faith to have been given on behalf of you and agrees to perform and ratify any contract entered into or action taken by TCSCS as a result of such communications.

- 12.4. You shall bear all risks arising from any fax communication with TCSCL, which is discharged from any responsibility in respect thereof apart from risks arising from TCSCL's own willful default or negligence. No claim to the contrary by you shall be admissible against TCSCL unless (a) the unauthorized Transaction was by any third party and TCSCL failed to exercise reasonable skill and care in respect of it or (b) any unauthorized Transaction arose from the willful default or negligence of TCSCL or any of TCSCL employees, agents or servants.

13. RISK RELATING TO SECURITIES DENOMINATED IN RENMINBI (RMB)

- 13.1. RMB is not freely convertible. Conversion between RMB and foreign currencies (including Hong Kong dollar) is subject to PRC regulatory restrictions which may affect the liquidity of the RMB denominated Securities.
- 13.2. As RMB denominated Securities may have irregular trading or an inactive market, you may not be able to sell your investment on a timely basis, or you may have to sell the product at a deep discount to its value. The Hong Kong dollar value of your investment will go down if the RMB depreciates against the Hong Kong dollar.

14. RISK OF TRADING IN RELATION TO FUNDS

- 14.1. In relation to investments into Securities of Funds, you acknowledge that you have read or will obtain from either TCSCL or the relevant Manager, Fund or Product Issuer up-to-date versions of the prospectuses or any materials supplied by the relevant Manager, Fund or Product Issuer that might exist on the date of the Transaction and the date of the order given by you to TCSCL prior to placing any order with TCSCL to subscribe for such Securities (in the form of Units or otherwise). You acknowledge and agree that TCSCL shall bear no liability or responsibility whatsoever to you for any error, misstatement or omission in any Prospectus or report or any other material prepared by or issued by any Manager, Fund, Product Issuer or willful action or omission, default, fraud or negligence by the Manager, Fund or Product Issuer.
- 14.2. TCSCL accepts no responsibility and will bear no liability to you for giving any recommendation or advice to you as to whether to invest or not to invest in any Security, or in connection with the performance of any Fund. You acknowledge the desirability and importance of seeking independent financial or professional advice with respect to any dealings or investments in Securities or investment opportunities. You acknowledge that any dealings or investments under the Account in any such Security is solely and exclusively made by you based on your own judgment and after your own independent appraisal and investigation into the risks associated with such dealings or investments have been made.
- 14.3. In relation to investments into unauthorized funds, you acknowledge that these are funds that have not been authorized by the SFC, and thus, are not available to the public in Hong Kong. In connection with such investment, you acknowledge that you understand (i) the key terms, features and nature of the authorized funds and the unauthorized funds and the possible risks thereof; (ii) that some of the unauthorized funds and financial investment products are not available to general public of Hong Kong and the possible risks thereof; (iii) that unauthorized funds are solely intended for a professional investor, as defined in the SFO and any rules made under the SFO; and (iv) that you have to be qualified as a professional investor of TCSCL and be subject to TCSCL's risk assessment procedures in order to invest in any unauthorized funds.

You acknowledge that investing in unauthorized funds involves additional and special risks. Unauthorized funds are not subject to the regulation of the SFC, the fund structures and operations may not be governed by any rules or regulations in Hong Kong and the offering documents may not have been vetted by any regulatory authorities in Hong Kong. Alternative investments, hedge funds and unauthorized funds typically are considered riskier given the use of alternative investment strategies and leverage that are not typically adopted by traditional funds.

Upon becoming TCSCL's professional investor, in relation to investments into unauthorized funds, you acknowledge that you have read or will obtain from either TCSCL or the relevant Manager, Fund or Product Issuer the funds documentation (e.g. prospectus, information/private placement memorandum, product key facts statement (as applicable and available), financial reports, fund fact sheet and advertising/marketing materials) and fund information (e.g. unit price, fund performance information and cut-off time for subscription, switching and redemption applications) via channel(s) designated or agreed to by TCSCL.

15. RISK OF TRANSACTIONS CONDUCTED OUTSIDE HONG KONG

- 15.1. Transactions on markets in other jurisdictions, including markets formally linked to a domestic market, may expose you to additional risk. Such markets may be subject to regulation which may offer different or diminished investor protection. Before you trade you should enquire about any rules relevant to your particular transactions. Your local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where your transactions have been effected. You should ask the company with which you deal for details about the types of redress available in both your home jurisdiction and other relevant jurisdictions before you start to trade.

16. RISK OF TRADING IN RELATION TO BONDS

- 16.1. Specific Risk of Bonds

Bond investment is NOT equivalent to a time deposit. It is NOT protected under the Hong Kong Deposit Protection Scheme. Do not invest in bonds unless you fully understand and are willing to assume the risks associated with it. Please seek independent professional advice if you are unsure.

16.2. Issuer Risk

Bonds are subject to both the actual and perceived measures of credit worthiness of the issuer. There is no assurance of protection against a default by the issuer in respect of payment or repayment obligations. You might not be able to recover the principal and any coupon if the issuer defaults on bond. Different bonds represent and comprise different obligations on the part of the issuer, for example the obligations may be direct, unsubordinated, subordinated, unsecured or secured obligations of the relevant issuer. Holders of a certain type or class of bonds may bear higher risks than holders of other types of bonds or securities if their bond has a lower priority of claim in the event of the issuer's default or insolvency or liquidation. You should therefore appraise yourself of the nature of the obligations of a particular bond issue and what claim priority exists in the event of the default or insolvency or liquidation of the issuer.

16.3. Risk of Change in Credit Rating

Some bonds are rated as "investment grade" or "non-investment grade" by independent credit rating agencies. Such credit ratings may change or cease during the lifetime of a bond. You must continuously appraise yourself of credit rating information and status to ensure that the bond(s), in which you have invested, remains suitable for you. You are encouraged to contact TCSCS for assistance, if necessary.

16.4. Liquidity Risk

Bonds are mainly for medium to long-term investment, and are not for short-term speculation. You should be prepared to invest your funds in bonds for the full investment tenor; you could lose part or all of your investment if you choose to sell your bonds prior to maturity.

The secondary market for bonds may not provide significant liquidity or may trade at prices based on the prevailing market conditions and may not be in line with the expectations of the bondholders.

16.5. Credit Risk

The issuer is responsible for payment of interest and repayment of principal of bonds. If the issuer defaults, the holder of bonds may not be able to receive interest and retrieve the principal. The holder of bonds bears the credit risk of the issuer.

16.6. Market Risk

Indicative bond prices are available and bond prices do fluctuate when market changes. Factors affecting market price of bonds include, but are not limited to, fluctuations in interest rates, credit spreads, and liquidity premiums. The fluctuation in yield generally has a greater effect on prices of longer tenor bonds. There is an inherent risk that losses may incur rather than profits made as a result of buying and selling bonds.

16.7. Interest Rate Risk

When the interest rate rises, the price of a fixed rate bond will normally drop, and vice versa. If you want to sell your bond before it matures, you may get less than your purchase price.

16.8. Non-Investment Grade Bonds or Unrated Bonds Risk

For the non-investment grade bonds or unrated bonds, the credit risk is higher. The bond is subject to a higher risk and higher chance to default. During economic downturns, non-investment grade bonds or unrated bonds may be more vulnerable to the impact of price fluctuations. As (i) investors become more risk adverse; and (ii) the default risk of the bond rises, the bond price of non-investment grade bonds or unrated bonds may drop more than the bond price of investment graded bonds.

16.9. Exchange rate risk

There may be exchange rate risks if you choose to convert payments made on the bonds to a different currency from its denominated currency.

16.10. Renminbi Risk

Renminbi (RMB) is subject to foreign exchange control. Notwithstanding that exchange control has been relaxed to a certain level by the Chinese government, Renminbi cannot be freely exchanged in Hong Kong. Exchange control imposed by the relevant authorities may adversely affect the applicable exchange rate. Should the central government tighten the control, the liquidity of RMB or even RMB bonds in Hong Kong will be affected and you may be exposed to higher liquidity risk. You should be prepared to invest your funds in bonds for the full investment tenor.

16.11. Reinvestment Risk

If you cannot reinvest the future interest incomes generated from a bond at the prevailing interest rate when the bond was initially purchased, the rate of the return (yield-to-maturity) of the bond will be affected.

16.12. Call Risk

If you hold a callable bond, when the interest rate goes down, the issuer may redeem the bond before maturity. If this happens and you have to re-invest the proceeds, the yields on other bonds in the market will generally be less favourable.

16.13. Perpetual Bond Risk

Perpetual bonds do not have a maturity date, and the coupon payments may be deferred or even suspended subject to the terms and conditions of the issue. Perpetual bonds are often callable and/or subordinated, you should pay attention to the reinvestment risk, and or a lower priority of claims (e.g. on liquidation of the issuer).

16.14. Other Risks

In general, bond transactions involve various risks including credit and settlement risks. Issuers, market-makers or other relevant parties may fail to perform obligations when due. The investment decision relating to the bond(s) is yours but you should not invest in the product unless you are satisfied that it is suitable for you having considered it carefully and in the context of your overall financial situation, investment experience, objectives, risk appetite and other relevant circumstances. You should assure yourself that you understand the nature and risks of the bond(s), and that you have sufficient net worth to be able to assume the risks and bear the potential losses that are associated with it.

17. SPECIFIC RISK OF TRADING EXCHANGE TRADED FUNDS (“ETFs”)

17.1. Market Risk

ETFs are typically designed to track the performance of certain indices, market sectors, or groups of assets, such as stocks, bonds, or commodities. ETF managers may use different strategies to achieve this goal, but in general they do not have the discretion to take defensive positions in declining markets. Investors must be prepared to bear the risk of loss and volatility associated with the underlying index/assets.

17.2. Tracking Errors

Tracking errors refer to the disparity in performance between an ETF and its underlying index/assets. Tracking errors can arise due to factors, such as the impact of transaction fees and expenses incurred to the ETF, changes in composition of the underlying index/assets, and the ETF manager’s replication strategy. The common replication strategies include full replication/representative sampling and synthetic replication.

17.3. Trading at Discount or Premium

An ETF may be traded at a discount or premium to its net asset value (“NAV”). This price discrepancy is caused by supply and demand factors, and may be particularly likely to emerge during periods of high market volatility and uncertainty. This phenomenon may also be observed for ETFs tracking specific markets or sectors that are subject to direct investment restrictions.

17.4. Foreign Exchange Risk

Investors trading ETFs with underlying assets not denominated in Hong Kong dollars are also exposed to exchange rate risk. Currency rate fluctuations can adversely affect the underlying asset value, also affecting the ETF price.

17.5. Liquidity risk

Securities Market Makers (“SMMs”) are Exchange Participants that provide liquidity to facilitate trading in ETFs. Although most ETFs are supported by one or more SMMs, there is no assurance that active trading will be maintained. In the event that the SMMs default or cease to fulfill their role, investors may not be able to buy or sell the product.

18. RISK OF TRADING COMPLEX PRODUCTS

18.1. Complex products are (i) investment products whose terms, features and risks are not reasonably likely to be understood by retail investors because of their complex structure, (ii) riskier than non-complex products and (iii) are not suitable for all investors. Please see additional information provided by the SFC at: <https://www.sfc.hk/web/EN/rules-and-standards/suitability-requirement/non-complex-and-complex-products/>.

18.2. You should read the offering documents and other relevant materials to understand the key nature, features and risks as well as any restrictions on the sale or target customers of a complex product and consider in what aspects the product is suitable to you. You are advised to seek independent professional advice before making any investment decision and should have sufficient net worth to be able to assume the risks and bear the potential losses of trading such product. Where past performance information is provided, you acknowledge that past performance is not indicative of future performance.

- 18.3. You should exercise additional caution in relation to complex products because you may lose the entire invested amount or more than the invested amount (if applicable).
- 18.4. For certain complex products, the offering documents or information provided by the issuer have not been reviewed or approved by the SFC, and you are advised to exercise additional caution in relation to the offer.
- 18.5. Investors for complex products generally should be experienced investors with a high tolerance for risk. The features and risk of complex products may not be clear or straightforward.
- 18.6. For those complex products authorized by the SFC, the authorization does not imply official recommendation or that SFC authorization is neither a recommendation or endorsement of a product nor does it guarantee the commercial merits of a product or its performance.
- 18.7. Some complex products are only available to professional investors, as defined in the SFO and any rules made thereunder. In case the complex product is only available to a professional investor, an investor who is not a professional investor should not make investment in such complex product.
- 18.8. The above is not an exhaustive list of the risk disclosure statements of complex products. Reference should be made to key fact statements of specific complex products. If necessary, you should seek independent professional advice.

19. RISK OF TRADING IN RELATION TO OVER-THE-COUNTER / OFF-EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS

- 19.1. In some jurisdictions, and only then in restricted circumstances, the licensed or registered person is permitted to effect off-exchange transactions. The licensed or registered person with which you deal may be acting as your counterparty to the transaction. It may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. For these reasons, these transactions may involve increased risks. Off-exchange transactions may be less regulated or subject to a separate regulatory regime. Before you undertake such transactions, you should familiarize with applicable rules and attendant risks.

21. RISK OF TRADING IN FX CONTRACTS

- 21.1. FX transactions involve additional risks not common to transactions denominated entirely in your domestic currency. Exchange rates of foreign currencies can be highly volatile and can be affected by factors such as changes in political and economic policy (both domestic and overseas), political instability, wars, natural disasters and global market movements.
- 21.2. The risk of loss in FX transactions can be substantial. If you utilize the margin facility provided by TCSCL for FX transaction, you may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. "Slippage" normally occurs during periods of high market volatility, when unforeseen circumstances move the market unexpectedly. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make payments of deposits or margin in monies. If the required funds / security are not provided within the prescribed time, TCSCL may enforce forced liquidation of the margin collaterals. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your Account. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

C. Important Notes and Specific Risks of Trading via the Stock Connect (including Shanghai–Hong Kong and Shenzhen–Hong Kong) Northbound Service

The following describes some of the risks and other significant aspects of trading the Shanghai Stock Exchange ("SSE") and Shenzhen Stock Exchange ("SZSE") Securities via the Stock Connect through TCSCL. In light of the risks, you should undertake such Transactions only if you understand the nature of Stock Connect trading and the extent of your exposure to risk. You should carefully consider (and consult your own advisers where necessary) whether trading is appropriate for you in light of your experience, objectives, financial resources and other relevant circumstances.

You must observe relevant laws and regulations of mainland China and Hong Kong as well as the rules of the exchanges. You must accept and agree the aforesaid and the risks related to Stock Connect, including but not limited to being liable or responsible for breaching the SSE listing rules, SSE rules, the SZSE listing rules, SZSE rules, ChiNext rules and other applicable laws and regulations before giving instructions.

1. NO DAY TRADING IS ALLOWED

You are not allowed to carry out day trading through Stock Connect. A shares bought on trade day (T-day) can only be sold on or after T+1 day.

2. OTC TRADING IS NOT PERMITTED

All trading must be conducted on SSE and SZSE, i.e. no over-the-counter (OTC) or manual trades are allowed.

3. MUST HAVE SHARES IN TCSCL'S CCASS ACCOUNT BEFORE THE MARKET OPENS

You must have your shares transferred to TCSCL's corresponding CCASS account before the commencement of trading on Trading Day if you intend to sell the shares during a Trading Day.

4. STOCK AND MONEY SETTLEMENT ARRANGEMENT

For SSE and SZSE shares trading, stock settlement will be conducted on T-day, while money (including the Transaction amount as well as the related fees and levies) will settle on T+1 day. You should ensure you have sufficient RMB in your Account for settlement.

5. TCSCL'S RIGHT TO CANCEL YOUR ORDERS IN CASE OF CONTINGENCY

TCSCL shall have the right to cancel your orders without prior notice in case of contingency such as hoisting of Typhoon Signal No 8.

6. QUOTA RESTRICTIONS

Purchases of SSE and SZSE Securities through Stock Connect are subject to certain daily quota controls. As a result, there is no assurance that a buy order can be successfully placed through Stock Connect.

7. DIFFERENCE IN TRADING DAY AND TRADING HOURS

Stock Connect allows trading only on days when both Hong Kong and mainland markets are open for trading, and banking services are available in all markets on the corresponding settlement days. You should also note that A shares trading will follow the trading hours of mainland markets.

8. FOREIGN SHAREHOLDING RESTRICTION

Under mainland China laws, there is a limit to how many shares a single foreign investor is permitted to hold in a single mainland China listed company. TCSCL has the right to force-sell your shares upon receiving a forced-sale notification from HKEx. Accordingly, you should ensure you fully understand the mainland rules and regulations in relation to shareholding restrictions and disclosure obligations and follow such rules and regulations.

9. SHORT SWING PROFIT RULE

Under mainland China laws, the "short swing profit rule" requires investors to return any profits made from purchases and sales in respect of Stock Connect Securities of a mainland China listed company if

- i. your shareholding in the mainland China listed company exceeds the threshold prescribed by the relevant Stock Connect authority from time to time and
- ii. the corresponding sale Transaction occurs within the six months after a purchase Transaction, or vice versa.

10. NOT PROTECTED BY INVESTOR COMPENSATION FUND

You should note that SSE and SZSE trading under Stock Connect will not be covered by Hong Kong's Investor Compensation Fund. As Hong Kong investors are not carrying out the SSE and SZSE trading through mainland brokers, they are not protected by China Securities Investor Protection Fund on mainland China.

11. WARNINGS

SSE and SZSE may request HKEx to require TCSCL to issue warning statements (verbally or in writing) to clients and not to extend SSE trading service to certain clients.

12. LIABILITY

HKEx, HKEx parent companies and subsidiaries, SSE and SSE subsidiary and their respective directors, employees and agents, SZSE and SZSE subsidiary and their respective directors, employees and agents shall not be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage directly or indirectly suffered by TCSCL, its clients or any third parties arising from or in connection with SSE trading or the CSC.

13. MARGIN TRADING

The margin trading of Stock Connect is subject to eligibility requirements as determined by the SSE or the SZSE. The list of eligible shares and their margin ratios may change from time to time. Should the volume of margin trading in a specific share exceed the threshold, the SSE or SZSE will suspend further margin trading of the stock on the next trading day.

14. DIFFERENCE IN TRADING DAY AND TRADING HOURS

Stock Connect will open on days when both the Mainland and Hong Kong stock markets are open for trading, and banking services in Mainland and Hong Kong are available on the corresponding settlement day. Given the differences in public holidays and working days between Mainland and Hong Kong, it is possible that Stock Connect is closed and investors cannot trade in A-shares during the day when the A-share market is open for trading. Investors shall note of the business days of Stock Connect. They should consider if they can take on the risk of price fluctuations in the A-share market during the time when Stock Connect is closed.

In addition, there is difference in trading hours between the Mainland and Hong Kong stock markets. Trading hours for A-shares under Shanghai Connect and Shenzhen Connect are different from Hong Kong and investors shall beware of such difference.

15. RESTRICTIONS ON SELLING IMPOSED BY FRONT-END MONITORING

For investors who keep their A-shares outside of brokerage firms, if they want to sell certain A-shares they hold, they must transfer those A-shares to the respective accounts of brokerage firms before the market opens on the day of selling (T day). If they fail to meet this deadline, they will not be able to sell those A-shares on T day.

16. SITUATIONS WHICH BUYING IS NOT ALLOWED

Under the following situations, investors cannot buy shares, but can only sell their holding through the stock trading link.

A-shares removed from the list of eligible stocks under Shanghai Connect/Shenzhen Connect will only be allowed for selling but restricted from further buying. Investors shall beware of the change of the list of eligible A-shares.

If the Northbound daily quota of Shanghai Connect/Shenzhen Connect is used up, i.e. the daily quota balance of Shanghai Connect/Shenzhen Connect drops to zero or the daily quota is exceeded during a continuous auction session (or closing call auction for SZSE), no further buy orders will be accepted for the remainder of the day while sell orders will still be accepted. Buying services will be resumed on the next Trading Day. Buy orders already accepted will not be affected by the daily quota being used up and will remain on the order book of SSE/SZSE unless otherwise cancelled by the relevant brokers.

If the used up of Northbound daily quota happens during the opening call auction session, new buy orders will be rejected. However, as order cancellation is common during opening call auction, the Northbound daily quota balance may resume to a positive level before the end of the opening call auction. When that happens, SEHK will again accept Northbound buy orders.

17. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TCSCSCL'S RIGHTS

Investors shall acknowledge that TCSCSCL reserves the right to (i) reject any Stock Connect orders upon the request of the relevant stock exchange; (ii) issue a warning statement (verbally or in writing) to the investors and not to extend the Stock Connect service to such investors, upon the request of the relevant stock exchange; and (iii) provide any information or materials of the investors (including, but not limited to, the information and personal data of the investors and other persons referred to in Rule 537 of the Rules of the Exchange) to SEHK, SSE and SZSE for surveillance and investigation purposes.

18. AUTHORIZATION GRANTED TO TCSCSCL

Each of the investors authorizes TCSCSCL to disclose, transfer and provide to SEHK (upon request by SEHK), and further authorizes SEHK (whether directly or through a SEHK subsidiary) to disclose, transfer and provide to SSE (upon request by SSE) and SZSE (upon request by SZSE), information and personal data concerning the investor, its clients (where applicable) and other persons referred to in Rule 537 of the Rules of the Exchange, and the investor shall make appropriate arrangements (including obtaining the relevant consents) to ensure that the relevant information and personal data may be disclosed, transferred and provided in compliance with applicable laws, including the PDPO.

19. MANDATORY UNWINDING OF INELIGIBLE CHINEXT SHARES AND/OR STAR SHARES TRANSACTIONS OF NON-INSTITUTIONAL PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS

In respect of the pending, settled or unsettled positions resulting from any instruction of you to transact ChiNext shares and/or STAR shares, you hereby agree and authorize TCSCSCL to amend, unwind or cancel any pending, settled or unsettled position of you in ChiNext shares and/or STAR shares or to sell or arrange for the sale of or otherwise deal with any quantity of ChiNext shares and/or STAR shares held on your behalf at such price and on such terms as TCSCSCL may determine in its absolute discretion as soon as possible if:

- TCSCSCL identifies that you are not an institutional professional investor;
- TCSCSCL receives notice directly or indirectly from the SEHK or other regulatory bodies in connection thereto;
- TCSCSCL is of the view that the client is in breach or may be in breach of any Applicable Laws and Regulations; or
- TCSCSCL has held on the client's behalf such ChiNext shares and/or STAR shares for a period longer than TCSCSCL's prescribed period as notified to the client from time to time.

D. Mainland Market Risk

1. MARKET VOLATILITY RISK

The Mainland stock market is relatively volatile as it is mostly made up of retail investors who tend to be speculative and susceptible to the central government policies and news.

2. MACRO-ECONOMIC RISK

There is a close relationship between the Chinese economy and stock market performance. The Chinese economic growth is still above the global average, but has already shown signs of slowdown. Moreover, there is growing concern over the country's government and corporate debts.

3. CURRENCY RISK

Hong Kong investors will expose to the risk of RMB exchange rate movements if they have to convert HKD into RMB for trading in Shanghai and Shenzhen A-shares. The conversion also incurs costs. Movements in the RMB exchange rate will affect the profits and debts of the Mainland listed companies. Such effects will be more significant to those export -oriented companies and companies having debts denominated in currencies other than RMB.

4. POLICY RISK

Central government's economic and financial policies will affect the performance of investment market. You shall beware of the central government policies for stimulating the economy or supporting different industries, as well as their different financial policies in respect of the currency, interest rate, credit and stock markets.

5. RISKS RELATING TO CHINEXT BOARD OF SZSE

Certain eligible A-shares under Shenzhen Connect are listed on the SZSE's ChiNext Board, which will be limited to the institutional professional investors at the initial stage of Shenzhen Connect. Generally, stocks listed on ChiNext Board contain higher risk than those listed on Main Board.

6. REGULATORY RISK

The listing requirements of ChiNext Board are less stringent than Main Board and SME Board, e.g. requiring a shorter track record period and lower net profit, revenue and operating cash flow. Moreover, the disclosure rules applied to the ChiNext Board are different from Main Board and SME Board. For example, ad hoc reports of ChiNext companies are only required to be published on a CSRC designated website and on the issuers' website. If investors continue to check information through the usual disclosure channels for Main Board and SME Board, they may miss out some important information disclosed by ChiNext companies.

7. OPERATING RISK

Companies listed on ChiNext Board are generally in the early stage of development, whose business is unstable, profitability is low, and less resilient against market and industry risks. Operating risks experienced by these companies often include technical failure, new products are not well-received by the market, failure to catch up the market development and any changes in the founder, management team and core technician team.

8. DELISTING RISK

Compared to the Main Board, the proportion of companies delisting is higher on the ChiNext Board.

9. FLUCTUATION IN STOCK PRICE

As companies listed on ChiNext Board are relatively small and their business performance are unstable, they are more vulnerable to speculation. Share price of the ChiNext stocks is more volatile.

10. TECHNICAL RISK

Companies listed on ChiNext Board are mainly high technology companies, whose success is subject to technical innovations. However, these companies are exposed to the risks and challenges relating to technical innovation, such as high R&D costs, technical failure, and rapid development and replacement in technology and product market.

11. RISKS RELATING TO VALUATION

Generally, it is difficult to estimate the value of a company listed on ChiNext Board as they are in the early stage of development with short operating history and unstable profits and cash flow. Therefore, traditional valuation method, such as price-to-earnings ratio and price-to-book ratio, is difficult to be applied.

12. RISKS OF MANDATORY-UNWINDING

You acknowledge that as a result of implementing the mandatory unwinding procedures (as mentioned in paragraph 19 of the section headed “C. Important Notes and Specific Risks of Trading via the Stock Connect (including Shanghai–Hong Kong and Shenzhen–Hong Kong) Northbound Service” of this Terms), you may suffer significant losses on your investment in ChiNext shares and/or STAR shares.

E. Amendments

You agree that TCSCSCL may from time to time in its absolute discretion add, amend, delete or substitute any of the terms of this Terms and Conditions and Risk Disclosure Statements by giving you reasonable notice of the changes which will become effective from the date specified in such notice.

Owing to market volatility and possible delay in the data-transmission process, the data may not be real-time market quotes for the relevant Securities or investment. You understand that whilst TCSCL believes such data to be reliable, there is no independent basis for TCSCL to verify or contradict the accuracy or completeness of such data. You understand that no recommendation or endorsement from TCSCL shall be inferred from such data.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in this Client Agreement or any other document, TCSCL may, at any time and from time to time, in its absolute discretion without notice and without giving any reason therefor, decline to accept any Instruction. You acknowledge that without prejudice to the foregoing in this Clause 20, any trade confirmation issued from or via MySmartAdvisor Service shall be merely an acknowledgement of the receipt of the relevant Instruction.
22. You understand that the order management engine used in processing your Instructions is, generally speaking, handled on a “First-In-First-Out” order and accordingly, TCSCL does not guarantee that any of your Instructions will be processed even though it may have been received.

You acknowledge that this Authorization will become effective on the date of TCSCL's approval of sending the Password in accordance with the terms hereof, which approval may or may not be given by TCSCL in its absolute discretion.
28. You acknowledge and agree that the fees set forth in the Websites (or any part thereof) appropriately reflect the allocation of risks set forth in this Agreement. Accordingly, based on the foregoing, you acknowledge as reasonable the exclusions of warranties and limitations on liability set forth in this Agreement. As such, you acknowledge and agree that if any of the exclusions or limitation of warranties or liabilities set forth in this Client Agreement should be deemed to be invalid, ineffective or unenforceable, or in the event TCSCL is found liable for any claim arising out of or in connection with this Client Agreement or this Schedule I, then, the entire collective liability of TCSCL and/or its Affiliates shall in no circumstance exceed two (2) times the amount of fees paid by you to TCSCL in the month immediately preceding the act or omission or circumstance giving rise to a claim.

29. 9. E-mail Notifications
- You note that the e-mail address recorded as part of your personal details will only be used for unilateral communication by us with you. We are entitled although not obligated to inform you by e-mail that you have received new information, updates, and/or notifications to your Account and/or the E-Services. You agree to notify us in writing immediately of any change to your e-mail address. Until such written notification is received, we are entitled to send e-mails to the last e-mail address of which we were notified in the proper manner. We are not liable for any losses or damages suffered by you in connection with the use of e-mail, particularly through the disclosure of personal data or details covered by personal data protection laws to third parties, or as result of failure to provide notification of a new e-mail address.
10. E-documents
- 10.1 Provided that there are no instructions that contain statements to the contrary, the user shall have access to any documents relating to the portfolio and/or the client relationship and specified by us, in particular our system-produced statements, advices, messages and/or transaction documents in electronic form (hereinafter referred to as "e-documents"), and these are to be regarded as official documents of TCSCL.
- 10.2 The user expressly acknowledges that we have duly fulfilled our information, reporting, notification and accounting obligations, in particular when the e-documents are made available to your e-mail address.
- 10.3 We cannot guarantee that the e-documents or print-outs of the e-documents will be regarded as having probative value, particularly as far as the authorities and courts are concerned. The user alone shall be responsible for finding out about the provisions and requirements which apply to him and for observing them. We may demand payment for the costs incurred as a result of any subsequent request for reproductions of physical or electronic copies of the e-documents.

- 10.4 To the extent permitted by law, we are authorized, at any time and without stating the reasons, to send the e-documents either exclusively or additionally in hard copy format to the postal address of the contracting party/our client.
- 10.5 On termination of the E-Services in accordance with clause 20 below, the e-documents will be forwarded in hard copy format in accordance with the new mailing instructions notified to TCSCS in writing within a reasonable period of time. Despite termination, e- documents which have already been placed in the user's e-mail address shall be deemed to have been duly forwarded.

11. Security

- 11.1 You acknowledge that we have taken all reasonable security precautions in terms of uncovering and fighting fraud. Nevertheless, it is not possible to guarantee absolute security either on the part of ourselves or the users. The user's end device/mobile end device is part of the system, but is beyond our control and may become a weak point in the system. TCSCS, therefore, in particular, cannot accept responsibility for the user's end device/mobile end device.
- 11.2 We are entitled as part of our security precautions at any time, at our own discretion and without informing the user beforehand to take security measures such as demanding that authentication features be entered again or cancelling the performance of instructions and blocking the user. We accept no liability for losses, of whatever kind, that arise as a result of such suspensions or blocks. We are entitled although not obligated to inform the user of possible security deficiencies associated with an end device/a mobile end device identified by us in connection with its security precautions.
- 11.3 If irregularities become apparent, the connection is to be terminated promptly by the user and we are to be informed immediately.
- 11.4 In order to increase security, we recommend the user to log in each time by directly entering our website into the browser in the E- Services manually and not by clicking links (e.g. in e-mails, internet search engines or pop-up windows). In order to ensure that the user is on our official website, the user can check the digital certificate by clicking the icon (e.g. padlock icon) in the browser's address line.
- 11.5 The user expressly accepts that increased risks including without limitation certain IT risks and disruption, in particular those specified below, may arise from the use of the internet and/or end devices/mobile end devices:
 - 11.5.1 There is a risk of the mobile end device being confiscated at border crossings (e.g. by an official body). The mobility of the mobile end device moreover increases the risk that it may be lost or stolen and therefore also increases the risk of abuse and knowledge of client data being gained by unauthorized third parties.
 - 11.5.2 When the internet is being used, there is a risk of viruses or third parties penetrating the user's end device/mobile end device and spreading or accessing data there in an unauthorized fashion (e.g. destruction of or spying on data of any kind).
 - 11.5.3 It is not possible to rule out the possibility of the user's communications traffic being profiled by third parties (e.g. internet providers, secret services, etc.), i.e. a third party is capable of tracing when the user was in contact with whom.
- 11.6 The user must minimize security risks that arise as a result of the use of public networks and/or a mobile end device by taking suitable measures. It is incumbent upon each user to inform himself/herself about possible security measures and take suitable security precautions (as a minimum, an up-to-date virus scanner, an effective firewall and, in addition to this, mobile hard drive encryption to protect data saved on mobile end devices). The user is obligated to make arrangements for suitable measures to rule out inasmuch possible abuse and errors, of whatever kind, that may arise as a result of the use of a mobile end device. The user should observe in a timely manner the relevant security measures specified from time to time by us for the protection of you. Any liability on our part is expressly excluded.
- 11.7 In the event of a system failure or security incident, the user should immediately report the incident to us by contacting us through other modes of communication such as e-mail or telephone.

12. Hardware/software for the use of the E-Services

- 12.1 The infrastructure used by the user (including without limitation, hardware, communication, communication software) must satisfy the requirements and must, in principle, be provided by the user (see the service specifications or other equivalent document that we may designate for this purpose from time to time).
- 12.2 The user is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-assignable right to use the E-Services software supplied by us (hereinafter referred to as the "software"), which must be installed by the user himself/herself. The user is expressly prohibited from wholly or partially modifying the software in any way, combining it with other programs or integrating it into other programs, copying the software or reproducing it in any other way and using it for purposes other than those provided for in these terms and conditions and the service specifications (or any other equivalent document designated by TCSCS from time to time) or passing it on to a third party.

12.3 We give no assurances that the software supplied is absolutely free from errors and functions perfectly with other programs deployed or used by the users. Where there are faults or errors in the software that impair or destroy the functionality of the user's mobile end device, the user must cease using it and inform TCSCSCL immediately. Insofar as legally possible, any liability on our part for losses or damages, of whatever kind, that are sustained by the user as a result of faults or errors in the software or improper use of the software, are excluded.

12.4 The user is obligated to install new releases, should this be necessary for the functionality of the system.

13. Binding nature of documents and information

13.1 The e-documents placed by us in the mailbox and/or official physical Account statements, advices, messages and/or other documents (hereinafter referred to as "Account documents") are legally binding. The electronic data and information the user receives (including without limitation details on financial and/or client relationships, portfolios, accounts, custody accounts, market prices/exchange rates, etc.; hereinafter referred to as "e-information") are to be regarded as provisional and non-binding and for reference only. The e- information represents neither (investment) advice on our part, a recommendation nor an offer or an invitation to purchase or sell investment instruments, effect transactions or conclude any kind of legal transaction or business but serve exclusively the purposes of information for you/the user (e.g. to facilitate independent investment decisions). This does not apply to e-information that is designated as binding. In the event of any discrepancy between e-information and Account documents, the latter shall take precedence. We cannot be held liable for any transactions, payments and/or other business conducted on the basis of e-information.

13.2 The e-information and individual E-Services may be endorsed with legal notes and/or restrictions (hereinafter referred to as "legal notes"). Legal notes of this nature are binding on the user. Insofar as the user does not wish to recognize these legal notes, he/she must immediately waive or forego the e-information or E-Services to which they relate. The full wording of legal notes may also be requested from us.

14. Liability

14.1 We exclude any liability for losses or damages incurred as a result of incorrect decisions made by the users on the basis of e-information. We give no assurances that the e-information which we provide to the user is correct, complete and/or appropriate. We are not liable for losses or damages, of whatever kind, which are sustained by the user/our client and/or third parties as a result of the use or improper use of the e- information.

14.2 The user shall be responsible for downloading the e-information and/or e-documents in a timely manner as well as for the non- changeable nature of their content, integrity, use, archiving, storage and reproduction (legibility). We shall not be liable for any resultant loss or damage.

14.3 You shall be exclusively and fully liable and responsible for all consequences arising from or in connection with the use of the E- Services by the users and/or all losses or damages that are sustained by us and/or third parties as a result of the improper or wrongful use of E-Services or e-information and/or the unlawful transmission or disclosure of e-information and/or e-documents to third parties, of whatever kind.

14.4 The E-Services are provided encrypted via public telecommunications equipment that is not specially protected. We expressly exclude any liability for losses or damages sustained by you, any of the users and/or third parties as a consequence of errors made by telecommunications equipment, network operators or third parties or that are attributable to the internet. We accept no responsibility for loss or damage resulting from the loss, amendment, manipulation, destruction or other third-party influences on the E-Services, e- information and/or e-documents.

14.5 We are not liable for the consequences of malfunctions and interruptions, in particular in the processing of instructions issued by the users. If the connection between us and the user fails or is interrupted, e-information and/or e-documents that have not yet been made available at this point are retained by us until the system is available again. TCSCSCL accepts no liability for losses or damages, of whatever kind, that arise as a result of such interruptions or of the non-availability of E-Services.

14.6 When security risks are identified, we reserve the right to suspend our E-Services at any time until the risks have been eliminated. We accept no liability for losses or damages, of whatever kind, that arise as a result of such suspensions.

14.7 Liability on our part for losses or damages that are sustained by you and/or the users as a result of the failure to fulfil contractual obligations, as well as indirect losses or damages and consequential losses or damages (including without limitation, lost profits or claims made by third parties) is excluded.

14.8 Provided that we do not act with gross negligence, you and the users release TCSCSCL and its employees from any liability for losses or damages that are caused as a result of using our E-Services.

15. Duty of confidentiality/data protection

15.1 The Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance of Hong Kong governs client data located in Hong Kong. A similar level of data protection cannot be guaranteed abroad the holder of a confidential private relationship accepts expressly that the discretion that is conventionally associated with this type of relationship is partially set aside when the E-Services are used.

- 15.2 You acknowledge and accept that client data encrypted with state-of-the-art methods are transported via a public network (dial-up, dedicated line or internet) when the E-Services are used by the users. However, as the sender and recipient remain unencrypted, it is possible for third parties to draw inferences about the existence of a business relationship.
- 15.3 On account of the circumstances of communication in public networks, it is not possible to ascertain which and how many nodes in different countries the client data flow through when they are transmitted to the recipient. Client data are also transmitted across borders even if both the sender and recipient are in the same country including Hong Kong.
- 15.4 We have outsourced the provision and development of the E-Services and the support function for dealing with any problems thereof to our affiliates domiciled in Hong Kong, Taiwan and China (collectively, hereinafter referred to as the “service provider”). In view of this outsourcing, client data and/or documents may be seen by a limited group of persons at the service provider if this is necessary for the technical fulfilment of this agreement and may be stored there. Neither we nor the service provider shall be liable for any consequences that may arise from the compulsory disclosure of such client data and/or documents to the competent authority in such location.
- 15.5 Personal data may need to be processed when the E-Services are used. Personal data are all details and information relating to an identified or identifiable person the user notes and agrees that personal data may be exchanged or processed by the us or our affiliated companies with registered offices in different countries.
- 15.6 The use of E-Services may also result in access data (e.g. log files, IP address, date and time of access, name of the file retrieved, access status, page from where access was made, top-level domain, web browser used, operating system used) being stored. The user notes and agrees that we may use the data for statistical purposes, for technical assessments, to optimize the server infrastructure, to establish the frequency of access and to identify ways of improving functionality and making things more user -friendly.
- 15.7 The user notes and agrees that, as part of the security measures taken by us (e.g. to uncover fraud), data such as authentication features (e.g. user ID) and IP addresses, which could be used to infer the identity of the user, may be forwarded to third parties. These third parties may have their registered office domestically or abroad.

16. Foreign legal systems

- 16.1 When the E-Services are used abroad, the users must comply with all local restrictions (e.g. import and export restrictions on encryption algorithms). It is the responsibility of the user to obtain information about the relevant current (foreign) laws and regulations and to comply with them. We reject any liability for such breaches of duty on the part of the users.
- 16.2 In some cases, the provision of financial services to the users abroad is subject to local legal restrictions. We are therefore entitled to adapt or limit its provision of the E-Services for the users abroad without prior notice.

17. Current agreements and regulations

All other agreements and provisions that regulate the relationship between you and us (including the Client Agreement) will continue to apply to the extent they are not contrary to these terms and conditions.

18. Amendments

We are entitled to unilaterally modify provisions of these terms and conditions and/or the service specifications (or any other equivalent document designated by us from time to time) at any time. We are obligated to give prior reasonable notice to our client of such amendments (including the designation of any document as equivalent to the service specifications) by means of a circular letter, in electronic form or another suitable form, or by posting it on our website. The amendments shall be effective on and from the date specified by us in such notification or when the user accepts and logs in to the E-Services.

19. Partial nullity

The invalidity, unlawfulness or ineffectiveness of a single or several provisions in these terms and conditions will not detract from the binding nature of the whole document.

20. Termination of the E-Services

- 20.1 To the extent permitted by law, we may, at any time, without giving notice or reason terminate this agreement contemplated under this Schedule and the access of the users to its E-Services, with immediate effect. This also applies, in particular, in cases where there are changes to the range of E-Services, this agreement contemplated under this Schedule and/or the schedule of charges.
- 20.2 To the extent permitted by law, you or the user may terminate the use of the E-Services at any time by giving us not less than three (3) Business Days’ prior written notice. Despite such termination, we will still be entitled to process transactions that have already been initiated with binding legal force for the client and/or user and to forward to the user the e-information and/or e-documents that are in the transmission phase.

21. Charges

We reserve the right to introduce charges in connection with its E-Services at any time and to adjust these charges to take account of current market conditions. We will inform you of the introduction of a charge or amendments to charges by means of a circular letter, in electronic form or another suitable form.

1.1 In this Schedule III, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions have the meanings set out below:

1.1.1 “Close-Out Amount” means, unless otherwise specifically provided for in the Transaction documentation applicable to a particular Transaction or group of Transactions, with respect to each terminated Transaction, the amount of the losses or costs of TCSCL that are or would be incurred under then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a positive number) or gains of TCSCL that are or would be realised under then prevailing circumstances (expressed as a negative number) in replacing, or in providing for TCSCL the economic equivalent of the material terms of that terminated Transaction. Any Close-out Amount will be determined by TCSCL (or its agent), which will act in good faith and use commercially reasonable procedures in order to produce a commercially reasonable result. Unpaid Amounts in respect of a terminated Transaction and legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses are to be excluded in all determinations of Close-out Amounts. In determining a Close-out Amount, TCSCL may consider any relevant information, including, without limitation, quotations (either firm or indicative) for replacement Transactions supplied by one or more third parties and market data in the relevant market. When it is commercially reasonable to do so, TCSCL may in addition consider in calculating a Close-out Amount any loss or cost (or gain) incurred in connection with its terminating, liquidating or re-establishing any hedge related to a terminated Transaction. Commercially reasonable procedures used in determining a Close-out Amount may include the application of pricing or other valuation models that are, at the time of the determination of the Close-out Amount, used by TCSCL in the regular course of its business in pricing or valuing Transactions.

- d. any laws, rules, regulations, interpretations or practices adopted in the U.S., Hong Kong or elsewhere pursuant to any of the foregoing.

1.1.3 “Foreign Law Requirement” means any obligation imposed on TCSCL pursuant to any future or present:

- a. foreign laws (including foreign laws in respect of which TCSCL considers itself bound);
- b. Hong Kong laws that implement Hong Kong’s obligations under an agreement with a foreign government (including the government of the PRC) or regulator;
- c. agreements entered into between TCSCL and a foreign government (including the government of the PRC) or regulator;
- d. agreements entered into between TCSCL and any counterparty or between TCSCL and any issuer of Securities or other investment products under or pursuant to or in connection with which TCSCL is required to comply with any foreign laws or any guidelines or guidance mentioned in item (e) below; or
- e. guidelines or guidance issued by any legal, regulatory, government, tax or law enforcement body within or outside of Hong Kong in respect of items (a) to (c).

For the avoidance of doubt, this definition includes any obligation or requirement applying to TCSCL as amended or introduced from time to time, including pursuant to FATCA.

1.1.4 “Government Authority” means any government, government body, government agency or regulator, in or outside of Hong Kong, including the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong and the IRS.

1.1.5 “Hong Kong” means the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the PRC.

1.1.6 “IRS” means the U.S. Internal Revenue Services.

- 1.1.7 “PRC” means the People’s Republic of China (excluding Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan).

- 1.1.9 “Ultimate Owner” means any ultimate beneficial owner of any Account with TCSCL, the person ultimately responsible for giving of instructions of any Transaction, any person who act on your behalf in receiving payment or any other person identified by TCSCL in its sole and absolute discretion as being connected with you.

- 1.1.11 “U.S.” means the United States of America.
- 1.2 Terms and expressions defined in this Schedule III shall have the same meaning in this Client Agreement unless the context otherwise requires. References to Clauses in this Schedule III shall refer to Clauses contained in this Schedule III, unless the context otherwise requires.
- 1.3 In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Client Agreement and this Schedule III, the provisions of this Schedule III shall prevail; provided, however, that this Schedule III in no way seeks to limit any of TCSCL’s rights under this Client Agreement and should be interpreted accordingly.

2. UNDERTAKING TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

- 2.1 You agree that TCSCL may disclose Relevant Information to any person or Government Authority, whether or not established under Hong Kong law, as required under any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA) as determined by TCSCL.

- 2.3 You will, promptly and from time to time, supply TCSCL with identity information and personal data in connection with the establishment or continuation of any Account with TCSCL or provision of Services. You further acknowledge that failure to supply Relevant Information may result in TCSCL being unable to effect a Transaction, provide the Services under this Client Agreement or operate or maintain any Account with TCSCL; or may result in TCSCL terminating the Account. It may also result in TCSCL having to withhold or deduct amounts as required under any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA).
- 2.4 You shall notify TCSCL forthwith of any change to the Relevant Information. TCSCL shall be entitled to rely fully on all such Relevant Information for all purposes until TCSCL is notified to the contrary in writing and any such written notification shall be duly signed by you. You understand and accept that notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in this Client Agreement including this Schedule III, any change to any such information shall not take effect until the actual receipt by TCSCL of the relevant written notification or until such shorter period of time as may be agreed by TCSCL in writing.
- 2.5 For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that applicable non-disclosure, confidentiality, bank secrecy, data privacy or other law imposes non-disclosure requirements on Transaction and similar information required or permitted to be disclosed as contemplated herein but permits a party to waive such requirements by consent, the consent and acknowledgements provided herein shall be a consent by you for purposes of such law.

3. INDEMNITY

Without limiting any other indemnity provided by you, you will indemnify TCSCL and its directors, employees and representatives against any liability, reasonable loss or expense (including tax or levy) arising from your instructions, Account or the provision of a Service to you, including as a result of any failure by you to comply with this Agreement, including this Schedule III, you or your other agent providing misleading or false information in respect of you or any other person or matter in connection with this Agreement, unless TCSCL is guilty of willful misconduct.

4. CONSENT TO DEDUCT, WITHHOLD AND BLOCK

- 4.1 You acknowledge and agree that notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement:
- (a) any payments by TCSCL under this Client Agreement will be subject to taxes, levies, imposts, duties or other charges, withholding and/or deduction of a similar nature, at present or in the future, as required under any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA), including but not limited to value added taxes, stamp duties, fines, penalties or interest payable in connection with any failure to pay or any delay in paying any of the above;

- (b) any amount withheld under paragraph (a) above may be held in whatever Account or in whatever manner determined by TCSCL; and
- (c) TCSCL is not liable for any gross up, loss or damage suffered as a result of the exercising of our rights under this Clause 4.1.

4.2 You further acknowledge and agree that

- (a) TCSCL has the right to refuse to carry out any instruction or perform any Service under this Client Agreement if such instruction or Service, in TCSCL's opinion, is in contradiction with or constitutes a breach of any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA) and/or TCSCL's policies in relation thereof;
- (b) any Transaction, payment or instruction under this Client Agreement may be delayed, blocked, transferred or terminated as required for TCSCL to meet its obligations including those under any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA) as determined by TCSCL; and
- (c) you waive any rights to claim for any loss, damage, cost or expenses suffered as a result TCSCL exercising its rights under the Schedule III.

5. TERMINATION

- 5.1 TCSCL may take such action that it deems in its sole discretion as appropriate, in respect of the Account, including without limitation suspending or closing the Account if you fail to comply with any requirement of this Schedule III in respect of any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA), including failing to provide information, documents and supporting materials as required by TCSCL or closure is otherwise necessary or convenient for compliance with any Foreign Law Requirement (including but not limited to FATCA).
- 5.2 If TCSCL terminates the Services under this Client Agreement and close your Account(s), then TCSCL shall have the right, without giving prior notice to or obtaining consent from you, to designate a day not earlier than the day such termination notice is effective as a close-out date (the "Close-Out Date") and close out some or all of the outstanding Transaction(s) in relation to your terminated Account(s) at TCSCL's sole and absolute discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, when exercising its right to close out the Transactions pursuant to this Clause 5, TCSCL is not liable for any losses or damages arising therefrom.
- 5.3 TCSCL shall calculate in good faith, with respect to such terminated Transaction(s) as of the Close-Out Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, the early termination amount (the "Early Termination Amount") as follows:
 - (a) for each such terminated Transaction or each group of such terminated Transactions, calculate a Close-Out Amount;
 - (b) calculate the Early Termination Amount being an amount equal to (1) the sum of (A) the aggregate sum of the Close-Out Amount (whether positive or negative) for each terminated Transaction, (B) the Unpaid Amounts owing to TCSCL and (C) any legal cost and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by TCSCL in good faith less (2) the Unpaid Amounts owing to Client; and
 - (c) if the Early Termination Amount is a positive number, you will pay it to TCSCL; if the Early Termination Amount is a negative number, TCSCL will pay the absolute value of the Early Termination Amount to Client.

- 2.2 Subject to Clause 0 below, TCSCL may grant the Client Facility of such amount up to the Credit Limit as may be notified to the Client from time to time. - 6.2 Upon termination of the Facility, any outstanding indebtedness by the Client shall forthwith be repaid to TCSCL.
- 6.3 Repayment for all or any other the loan amounts owed to TCSCL will not of itself constitute cancellation or termination of the Margin Facility Terms.

7. SECURITY UNAFFECTED

Without prejudices to the generality of the foregoing, neither the Charge nor the amounts thereby secured will be affected in any way by:

- (i) any other security, guarantee or indemnity now or hereafter held by TCSCL or its Affiliates under or in respect of the Margin Facility Terms or any other liabilities;
- (ii) any other variation or amendment to or waiver or release of any security, guarantee or indemnity or other document (including, except to the extent of the relevant variation, amendment, waiver or release, the Charge);

- (x) any agreement, security, guarantee, indemnity, payment or other transaction which is capable of being avoided under or affected by any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up or any release, settlement or discharge given or made by the Client on the faith of any such agreement, security, guarantee, indemnity, payment or other transaction, and any such release, settlement or discharge shall be deemed to be limited accordingly; or any other thing done or omitted or neglected to be done by TCSCL or any other person or any other dealing, fact, matter of thing which, but for this provision, might operate to prejudice or affect the Client's liabilities under the Margin Facility Terms.

8. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT IN RESPECT OF THE SEHK OPTIONS CLEARING HOUSE LIMITED (SEOC) MARGINING ON A PORTFOLIO BASIS

The Client acknowledges that he/she hereby authorize TCSCL and its applicable agents to submit a claim with the SEOC in respect of his/her open positions to the effect that SEOC will calculate and collect margin in respect of such positions on a portfolio basis. The Client further acknowledges that he/she was invited to read the reporting requirements and the responsibilities of reporting set out in the Rules of the HKEx and in the Securities and Futures (Contracts limits and Reportable Positions) Rules and related guidance notes issued by the SFC.

9. RISK DISCLOSURE

TCSCL refers the Client to the Risk Disclosure contained in Clause B - Risk Disclosure Statements in the Client Agreement.

10. ADDENDUM

The Client also agrees to the following addendum:

10.1 AUTHORIZATION TO DISPOSE OF, LEND OR DEPOSIT SECURITIES AND/OR SECURITIES COLLATERAL UNDER THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES (CLIENT SECURITIES) RULES

- (i) This section covers all the Securities that are either listed or traded on the HKEx or are interests in a collective investment scheme authorized by the SFC of which the Client owns or beneficially owns, which are received or held in Hong Kong by or on behalf of TCSCL or TCSCL-associated entity to facilitate the provision of financial accommodation by TCSCL (the "Securities Collateral") and/or are in relation to the conduct of dealing in Securities and which do not constitute Securities Collateral (the "Margin Securities").
- (ii) Without prejudice and in addition to any general lien, right of set-off or any other similar right to which TCSCL may be entitled by law or under the Client Agreement entered into between us. The Client hereby authorizes TCSCL to dispose of any of the Margin Securities or/and Securities Collateral to the extent required to settle any liability owed by you to TCSCL, TCSCL associated entity or a third person.
- (iii) The Client hereby additionally authorizes TCSCL to deal with the Margin Securities and/or Securities Collateral in the following ways:
 - (a) to apply any of the Margin Securities and/or Securities Collateral pursuant to a Securities borrowing and lending agreement;
 - (b) to deposit the Securities Collateral with an authorized institution as defined in the Banking Ordinance (Cap.155 of the Laws of Hong Kong) as collateral for financial accommodation provided to TCSCL; and
 - (c) to deposit the Securities Collateral with a recognized clearing house (e.g. HKEx) or another intermediary licensed or registered for dealing in Securities as collateral for the discharge and satisfaction of TCSCL settlement obligations and liabilities.
- (iv) TCSCL may perform any of the above without prior notice to the Client. This does not cover the treatment of:
 - (a) any Margin Securities or Securities Collateral that are held or received outside Hong Kong;
 - (b) any Margin Securities or Securities Collateral that not listed nor traded on the HKEx; nor
 - (c) any interests in a collective investment scheme not authorized by the SFC.
- (v) Those Securities and Securities collateral shall be dealt with according to the laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction where they are received or held.
- (vi) The authority given in this authorization does not cover any consideration which the Client may pay or be paid for the lending or borrowing of Securities by TCSCL. Such consideration shall be set by a separate agreement between us.

- (vii) The Client understands that the Margin Securities and/or Securities Collateral may be subject to liens or lawful claims of third parties and return of such Securities and/or Securities Collateral to the Client may be subject to satisfaction of such liens.
- (viii) The authority given to TCSCL under this authorization shall be valid for a period of twelve (12) months from the date of this authorization unless revoked by written notice given by the Client to TCSCL. Such notice of revocation shall take effect upon expiry of five (5) business days from the date of the actual receipt of such written notice by TCSCL. Before the expiration of this authority, TCSCL will send the Client a notice of the renewal of authority under this authorization for an additional period of twelve (12) months. The renewal of the authority will automatically take effect unless TCSCL receives express revocation or objection to renewal from the Client before the expiry date of the authority.

10.2 AUTHORIZATION TO DISPOSE OF, LEND OR DEPOSIT SECURITIES AND/OR SECURITIES COLLATERAL UNDER U.S. TRADING

- (i) When the Client purchases Securities, the Client may pay for the Securities in full or the Client may borrow part of the purchase price from TCSCL. If the Client choose to borrow funds from TCSCL, the Securities purchased are TCSCL's collateral for the loan to the Client. If the Securities in the Client's Account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting the Client's loan, and as a result, TCSCL can take action, such as sell Securities or other assets in any of the Client's Accounts held with TCSCL or issue a Margin Call, in order to maintain the required equity in the account.
- (ii) The Client understands that TCSCL generally will liquidate positions in the Client's Account in order to satisfy margin requirements without prior notice to the Client and without an opportunity for the Client to choose the positions to be liquidated or the timing or order of liquidation. In addition, the Client fully understands the risk involved in trading Securities on margin. These risks include the following:
 - a. the Client can lose more funds than your deposit in the Margin Account;
 - b. TCSCL can force the sale of Securities or other assets in the Client's Account(s);
 - c. TCSCL can sell the Client's Securities or other assets without contacting the Client;
 - d. the Client is not entitled to choose which Securities or other assets in the Client's Account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a Margin Call; and
 - e. TCSCL can increase its maintenance margin requirements at any time and it is not required to provide the Client with advance written notice.

The Client acknowledges that the Client may also be liable in damages to other persons affected by such failure or factors; and (iii) in the event that the bulk application is only partially accepted, the Client agrees that TCSCL or its nominee is entitled to distribute the Allotted Securities in TCSCL or its nominee's absolute discretion, including distributing the Allotted Securities equally among TCSCL and its nominee's clients under the bulk application and the Client shall not have any claim to the Allotted Securities or claim of priority to another client of TCSCL or its nominee in relation to the bulk application.

- 2.7 No Withdrawal: The Client acknowledges and agrees that any Application, once submitted by TCSCL or its nominee, as agent on behalf of the Client, or otherwise processed by TCSCL or its nominee, might not be capable of being withdrawn, cancelled or modified.

3. RESPONSIBILITY OF TCSCL

4. NOTIFICATION AND APPROVAL

- 4.1 Approval of Applications: The Issuer shall be solely responsible for approving or disapproving Applications and for announcing the results of allocation of the Offer Securities. The specific arrangements with regard to the announcement of results may differ from one Offer to another and the Client shall be responsible for ascertaining details of such arrangements by reviewing the relevant prospectus. TCSCL or its nominee will notify the Client of the results of its Application in such manner as TCSCL may consider appropriate.
- 4.2 Disposal of Allotted Securities: Unless TCSCL or its nominee receives notice from the Client to the contrary and payment of all amounts owing by the Client to TCSCL or its nominee in connection with any Application (within such time as TCSCL or its nominee may specify in their notification of allotment to the Client (without prejudice to their right of repayment on demand or any other rights or remedies)), TCSCL and its nominee is authorized but not obliged, without notice to or consent from the Client, to sell or otherwise dispose of any and all Allotted Securities in such manner and for such price or prices, free from any restrictions and claims and without being responsible for any loss, as they may think fit and apply the proceeds of such sale or disposal towards discharging any liabilities in such order of priority as they may consider appropriate, including the costs incurred in connection with the sale or disposal of the Allotted Securities and all other costs incurred by TCSCL and its nominee in connection with the Application, the Handling Fee, interest payable by the Client on the IPO Loan, outstanding principal amount of the IPO Loan, and the Application Amount, and the remaining amount (if any) shall be paid to the Client or to the Client's order. - 4.3 Payment and Release: If the Client gives any notice to TCSCL or its nominee pursuant to Clause 4.2 (Disposal of Allotted Securities) of this Schedule VI, the Client shall pay to TCSCL or its nominee at the time of giving such notice or otherwise on demand all amounts owing by the Client to TCSCL or its nominee in connection with the relevant Application (including all fees, charges and expenses specified by any Relevant Person). TCSCL is not obliged to release or procure its nominee to release to the Client the certificates relating to the Allotted Securities, or to procure the Allotted Securities to be credited to the Client's Account, unless and until all amounts owing by the Client to TCSCL and its nominee have been received in full by them to their satisfaction.

5. REFUNDS

- 5.1 Unsuccessful Application: If an Application is submitted but is wholly or partly unsuccessful, TCSCL or its nominee will arrange for refund of the Application Amount (or the applicable balance as the case may be) on the refund date as announced by the Issuer in the same manner described in this Clause subject to Clauses 5.4 (Financing Fees) and 7 (IPO Financing) of this Schedule VI.
- 5.2 Lower Offer Price: In the event that the offer price of the Offer Securities (as finally determined by the Issuer) is less than the Application Amount initially paid by the Client, TCSCL or its nominee will arrange to refund the surplus of the Application Amount to the Client in accordance with the terms and conditions of the relevant Offer subject to Clauses 5.4 (Financing Fees) and 7 (IPO Financing) of this Schedule VI.

- 5.3 Fees: All Handling Fees and all other fees in connection with an Application are not refundable, even where the listing of the relevant Issuer is delayed or terminated.

6. CLIENT'S UNDERTAKINGS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 6.1 Not Prohibited: The Client warrants to and for the benefit of TCSCL and any of its nominees that the Client is not a person prohibited by any Relevant Person or any applicable regulations from making the Application(s) or from owning the Offer Securities and that the Client makes each Application as principal and not on behalf of any person subject to such prohibition or any other person.
- 6.2 Offering Documents: With respect to each Application, the Client understands, and shall accept and comply with all the terms and conditions governing the relevant Offer as set out in the relevant application form, prospectus and/or offering document and any other relevant document in respect of such Offer. The Client agrees to be bound by such terms and conditions in respect of each Offer for which TCSCL or its nominee makes an Application. The Client shall make the investment decision based on the prospectus and other offering documents in respect of the relevant Offer. TCSCL has no obligation to provide such prospectus and other offering documents to the Client.
- 6.3 Multiple Applications: The Client represents and warrants to TCSCL and its nominee that in respect of any Application (a) (where multiple Applications for subscription of Offer Securities are not permitted) the Client has not made and will not make, and has not procured and will not procure, more than one Application for subscription of Offer Securities whether for its own account or for the account of any other person, and (b) the Client has not been placed (whether for its own benefit or for the benefit of any other person) with any shares or warrants or interests which are of the same class or type as those applied for in the Application. The Client acknowledges that any breach by the Client of or any inaccuracy of the representation and warranty set out in this Clause may result in, in addition to the rejection of the Application, the rejection of other applications submitted by TCSCL or its nominee on their own behalf or on behalf of their other clients. The Client shall indemnify TCSCL and its nominee on demand for all losses resulting from such breach or inaccuracy. SCHEDULE VIII

ORDER EXECUTION POLICY

1. Introduction

This Order Execution Policy (this “Policy”) contains the most important and relevant elements of TCSCL’s order execution policy and arrangements in relation to leveraged foreign exchange trading which enables TCSCL’s clients (“Clients”) to make a properly informed decision about the execution services.

TCSCL (CE Reference No.: AVO854) is licensed by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission to carry out certain regulated activities, namely, dealing in securities (Type 1), leveraged foreign exchange trading (Type 3), advising on securities (Type 4) and asset management (Type 9). TCSCL is also an Exchange Participant of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (Participant ID: B01912).

TCSCL has developed an online platform, namely MySmartAdvisor (“MSA”) which allows its Clients to give trading instructions, including foreign exchange instructions to facilitate the trading of securities listed in Hong Kong, the United States and other exchanges and execution of foreign exchange transactions.

2. Application of Best Execution Obligation

TCSCL is obliged to take all reasonable steps to obtain, when executing orders, the best possible result for its Clients (“best execution”) taking into account the execution factors (as defined below) where TCSCL acts on behalf of its Clients.

TCSCL operates on a Straight Through Procession model and executes its Clients’ orders with its counterparty(ies). Where the Clients give a specific instruction as to how to execute a transaction, TCSCL shall execute the order following the specific instruction and comply with such specific instruction. In such circumstances, TCSCL will be deemed to have satisfied the best execution obligations.

3. Best Execution Factors and Criteria

When executing Clients’ order, TCSCL may take into account the following criteria for determining the relative importance of price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size and any other consideration relevant to order execution (the “execution factors”):

- a) the characteristics of the client order type;
- b) the characteristics of the financial instruments that are the subject of that order; and
- c) the characteristics of the execution venues to which that order can be directed.

Differences in market structure and the structure of financial instruments results in the satisfaction of TCSCL’s best execution obligations in different ways as further detailed below.

4. The Role of Price

It is the general policy for all Clients’ transactions not to give execution factors other than price and costs precedence, unless they are instrumental in delivering the best possible result in terms of total consideration to the Clients.

5. Execution Venues and Basis

Subject to any specific instructions from the Clients, TCSCL may use one or more venues and basis of execution to enable it to obtain the best possible result on a consistent basis when executing an order on the Clients’ behalf.

6. Receiving and Transmitting Orders

TCSCL may transmit orders to agents. As well as having regard to an agent’s access to markets and execution venues, when choosing agents for inclusion in this Policy, TCSCL assesses each agent’s ability to obtain the best possible result on a consistent basis, having regard to the above execution factors.

7. Order Execution Risks*Slippage*

TCSCL takes reasonable steps to ensure that the execution of our quoted prices will obtain the best possible result for its Clients at the time the quote is provided. However, fast moving markets may result in execution of a transaction at a price which has ceased to be the best market price. Unless the price movement is significant in which the order may be rejected, favourable price movements (price improvements), and adverse price movements will be passed on to the Clients.

Gapping/Volatility

There may be significant market movement after a news announcement or economic event, or between the close and re-opening of a market which will have a significant impact on the execution of a pending order. Clients should be aware of the following risks associated with volatile markets, especially at or near the close of the standard trading session:

- an order may be executed at a substantially different price from the quoted bid, offer, or the last reported trade price at the time of order entry, an order may be partially executed or executed in several shapes at different prices; and
- opening prices may differ significantly from the previous day's close.

Trading System or Internet Connectivity Execution Delays

Delays in execution beyond our control may occur as a result of technical failures, malfunctions in connection with use of MSA, internet connectivity or processing speed for which TCSCL does not accept responsibility.

8. Order Handling

A client order executed on MSA contains all pertinent order details, including the type of order, price, and time in force. If you have any question regarding order execution, it is your responsibility to seek guidance from TCSCL.

In respect of a client order, the trading system will execute an order at the first available price (for the relevant size of the order) as soon as possible after the order is accepted. The price at which the order is executed may be different to the price displayed at the time of placing that order due to movements in the market that have taken place between the time that the order is placed and that at which the order is executed by the trading system. Such price movements, known as slippage, will either disadvantage or benefit clients, and is a function of market liquidity.

Correction and cancellation of orders

Generally, no corrections or cancellations will be made to the Clients' agreed orders, even if an order is made due to a mistake by the Clients. TCSCL does not assume responsibility and does not correct such orders. However, if any of the following identified, at TCSCL's sole discretion, correction, or cancellation of the order may occur:

- the order deems to be fraudulent;
- the order price outlawed from the market prevailing price;
- order is made in the event of system failure; or
- in the event that the Client violates this Policy and other related provisions and rules etc.

9. Monitoring and Review

TCSCL will monitor the effectiveness of its order execution arrangements and this Policy and regularly assess whether or not the execution venues it accesses continue to provide the best possible results for orders it executes on behalf of its Clients.

TCSCL will review, at least annually or when a material change occurs, both its order execution arrangements and this Policy.

10. Clients consent to Order Execution Policy

By signing TCSCL's client agreement, the Client(s) consents to this Policy.
